

AGI Early Careers Network Where to Start with a Career in Earth Observation

The Early Careers Network were pleased to announce a new event for September with guest speaker James Cutler of the Satellite Applications Catapult.

Taking place on the 22 September the event consisted of a presentation followed by an opportunity to get questions answered on the subject of starting a career in Earth Observation.

View the recording here